Jason and Steve,

I hope all is well and that you have been enjoying the summer.

Several of our members have recently asked us for more information regarding our new warranty reimbursement law. To fulfill their requests, we developed the attached "NDIDA Warranty Reimbursement Guide." At this point, it is a rough draft; we would welcome your input. Please consider this a token of the communication/relationship that we hope to further enhance with you and your team at John Deere.

We would like to formalize this document and communicate it to our members by COB Thursday, July 27, 2017. I look forward to your feedback. Thank you guys.

Kind regards,

Matthew C. Larsgaard, MBA
